

VBOA Disciplinary Actions

Policy notice

It is the policy of the Virginia Board of Accountancy to publish the information of licensees against whom the VBOA has taken a disciplinary action resulting in suspensions and revocations and for other professional violations. The VBOA publishes information of licensees found to be deficient in CPE credit hours in the event of a previous CPE deficiency or previous professional violation, or a disciplinary action resulting in suspension. The VBOA also publishes information of unlicensed individuals and firms against whom the VBOA has taken a disciplinary action. This policy is subject to change without notice.

Monetary penalties are deposited into the Commonwealth Literary Fund and not available for use by the VBOA.

Gail Morris Fernandez violated the Board's regulations by not obtaining a minimum number of hours of continuing professional education. She failed to meet the total 120 hours CPE requirements, which includes an ethics course of at least two hours for calendar years 2012, 2013, and 2014.

Based on the violations, Fernandez's CPA license shall be placed on suspension for a period of no less than one year from the entry date of the Order. Upon completion of the one year suspension, she shall be required to come before the Board as a condition of reinstatement and present proof of 120 hours of CPE. Fernandez understands that during the time her license is suspended, the CPA title cannot be used nor any services provided restricted to CPAs until the CPA license has been reinstated. She also agreed to: (1) pay a monetary penalty of $1,000 for the deficiency of 101 CPE; (2) pay $100 for failing to respond to the Board's notices regarding the CPE audit; (3) remove the CPA title from all signage and any and all listings that implies she is currently licensed; and (4) submit verification of CPE compliance for the three calendar years of 2016, 2017, and 2018, including the Virginia-Specific Ethics Course for each year. Fernandez understands that failure to meet any terms and conditions of this Order will result in the automatic suspension of her CPA license until such time that the terms and conditions have been met.

Consent Order

Jeffrey C. Goodman violated the standards of conduct and practice in that he failed to exercise due professional care in the performance of professional services in the preparation and timely filing of paperwork to settle a decedent's estate. He also failed to act in a way that served the public interest, honored the public trust, and demonstrated commitment to professionalism and advertised or otherwise solicited in a manner that was false, misleading or deceptive in that he permitted a person whom he had the authority or capacity to control to carry out on his behalf promotion or advertisement that Goodman & Associates could perform services restricted to a licensed CPA firm when it did not hold a Virginia firm CPA license. He further violated the VBOA's regulations by failing to meet the CPE requirements for the reporting period of 2014, 2015 and 2016.

Based on these violations, Goodman agreed to be (1) reprimanded; (2) pay a total monetary penalty of $2,000; (3) submit the deficient CPE hours; (4) submit proof of completion of the current year's annual Virginia-Specific Ethics Course; (5) be subject to a CPE compliance review for the reporting period of 2018, 2019, 2020; and (6) report this order as an adverse administrative action to any present and future regulatory authority before which it practices.
